

WIN 2 TICKETS TO THE FOX ALL-STAR PARTY FALL 2014 SWEEPSTAKES Presented by THE WRAP

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER THE WRAP

THE WRAP

Covering Hollywood

'Tyrant' Agreement Reached Between Twentieth Century Fox and King Midas World Entertainment

TV | By Jason Hughes on July 21, 2014 @ 7:19 pm

Follow @@ultraversion21

37 52 4 8+1 1 0 0 315 Email Print

FX

RELATED

FX's 'Tyrant' Tackles Middle East Stereotyping: 'There Was Some Tweaking Needed'

FX's 'Tyrant' Moves Production Due to Violence in Israel

Both parties called on to refrain from challenging each other's mark, with FX's "Tyrant" the story of an American family drawn into Middle Eastern turmoil, and King Midas' "Tyrant" a Las Vegas-based superhero property

King Midas World Entertainment and Twentieth Century Fox have reached an agreement on "Tyrant." FX has a new drama on the air under that title, about an American family that is drawn into the political turmoil of a Middle Eastern nation. King Midas, on the other hand, has a superhero property under the same name, also identified as Tyrant Knight.

Also read: 'Purge' Creators Hit With $5 Million Copyright Infringement Lawsuit

The superhero "Tyrant" was created by Fabrizio Boccardi, CEO of King Midas World Entertainment, with the intention of launching a franchise and creating a global brand. "We have big plans for this property, which are actively in development and others that we are pursuing also with

WIN 2 TICKETS TO THE FOX ALL-STAR PARTY FALL 2014 SWEEPSTAKES Presented by THE WRAP

THE LATEST

Robin Williams, Oscar-Winning Actor, Dead at 63 of Suicide

Maika Monroe Joins Chloe Moretz, Nick Robinson in 'The 5th Wave'

'Outlander' Premieres on Par With 'Black Sails'

Ronan Farrow on Mia Farrow: 'My White Mother Had Blackmotheritis'

